1. On Red Army Day, 23 February 1951, the collective billeting area of the Luftnachrichten Schule and the Fliegerhorst Kaserne in Halle (N 52/D 92) quartered about 5,000 troops. Most of the soldiers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. Only a few soldiers in the billeting area wore black-bordered black epaulets and black-bordered red epaulets, both without branch of service insignia.

* Comment. The estimated number of troops in the collective billeting area of the Luftnachrichten Schule and the Fliegerhorst Kaserne corresponds to the aggregate strength of the elements of the 21st Gds Mecz Div which are believed to be located there. Specifically, four regiment-size units and three or four battalion-size units are probably quartered in the installation, and possibly, also the division's AAA regiment. Definitely believed to be included among these units are the Hq 21st Gds Mecz Div, the 19th Gds Hvy Tank SP Regt, the 136th Gds Mort Regt and the unidentified Mtrcl Bn, possibly the 114th. 25X1

 Comment. The information on the Flak Kaserne in Woermnitz agrees with previous reports. Although no rocket launcher battalion has as yet been observed with the 21st Gds Mecz Div, its existence and location in the Flak Kaserne is vaguely indicated by the rocket launcher mentioned in the present report.

Comment. The officers' billets on Reichhardtstrasse and the SCC office on Thomas-Muenzer-Platz are reported for the first time and are apparently affiliated to the Hq SCC for Land Saxony on Rathenau Platz, southeast of Thomas-Muenzer-Platz. Reichhardtstrasse is situated about 800 meters west of Thomas-Muenzer-Platz.
